

FRANCE

An internship abroad in France is the right decision if you wish to experience a unique style of working as you balance work and pleasure.

PARIS

- Paris, one of the most visited cities in the world, uniquely combines the modern with the classic. It will provide you with a full set of internship experiences in different fields to grow you professionally, in areas such as branding, finance, and many others.
- The strengths and skills you will gain from interning in this city will guarantee that you are adaptable, aware of cultural differences, and experience real situations from the world of work.
- The internship positions tend to be full-time, lasting from one to six months. You will have the help of a supervisor who will accompany you throughout your work.
- With internships in Paris you will earn a legal minimum wage that will provide for your needs and a good standard of living.
- French language skills are always useful, and this is a fantastic opportunity for you to develop these skills.
